THE PREREQUISITES OF THE TRAINING

To enter the professional training of the Juste Debout School, there are no academic prerequisites but you must pass a dance audition. On the occasion of the annual back-to-school in October, the auditions for the professional training of Dancer and Performer in Street dance at the Juste Debout School take place 2 Saturdays per month from February to July. They take place at the Juste Debout School, 3 rue de l'Est 75020 Paris. To register, you have to fill in and send the registration form as well as a CV and a letter of motivation, and choose a date for the audition. An invitation to the audition is then sent to the candidate to confirm his/her registration for the chosen audition. The result of the audition is communicated to the candidate within three working days.

An audition consists of a class, it is free and unrestricted (there is no music to bring or choreography to prepare), the trainers evaluate the level (sense of rhythm, listening to music...) and the motivation (to dance every day, to be punctual...). As for the level required to participate in the auditions, it is necessary to dance regularly, every week during the year preceding the audition. The training is intended for amateur dancers with an intermediate level who wish to work in the professional field of dance at the end of the training. The training is accessible to handicapped persons if their disability does not prevent them from practicing dance at a high level.
